Waukesha Bearings Appoints Vice President, Human Resources

COLORADO—October 5, 2011. White Lake Partners is pleased to announce that its client, Waukesha Bearings, has appointed Craig Paulson as Vice President, Human Resources.

Mr. Paulson has held senior human resources management roles with Rust-Oleum, Danaher Corporation, and Cooper Power Systems. Most recently, Mr. Paulson served as a Director, Human Resources & Compensation for Cooper Power Systems. Craig has a strong global HR background which started at Danaher when he became the Global HR Leader for Danaher's Global Feedback Business Unit. At Cooper Power Systems, Craig was the Director of Human Resources for their Transformers Business Unit with employees in the US, Mexico, China and Taiwan. At both Danaher and Cooper, Craig was responsible for planning, directing and implementing leadership development strategies and programs to shape desired management practices for effective talent management and succession planning across multiple global business units. Mr. Paulson received a Master of Science, Human Resources and Labor Relations from the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee.

Waukesha Bearings Corporation is a world-leader in the design and manufacture of highly engineered hydrodynamic bearings, active magnetic bearings and bearing isolators for the rotating equipment industry used in turbo-machinery applications in the oil & gas, power generation and marine industries. Typical applications include gas, steam and hydro turbines, compressors, gearboxes, motors and a variety of marine and industrial machinery. The company was founded in 1946 and has been an operating company of Dover Corporation since 1977. The company has manufacturing locations in Wisconsin, Illinois, Scotland, England and Mexico as well as sales/engineering offices in London and Moscow. The company has a reputation for engineering leadership and forging strong relationships with customers.
